2020-21 AGRITOURISM GUIDE

Can you imagine a place where farmers grow hundreds of acres of fresh produce, graze cattle, raise shrubs, trees, herbs and bees—create dozens of artisanal products like Peach-Shine Jam & Sunburst Trout Caviar—while embodying the character of a rural community?

Welcome to Haywood County, a place where the rich landscape of local ingredients and cultural memory nurtures unique collaborations between farmers and makers.

It's the destination that brings everyone together, season after season.

Local Flavors

Southern food is less about any particular ingredient and more about a state of mind. Appalachian cuisine is deeply rooted in our heritage—born through centuries of “making do,” never wasting and seeing delicious opportunities everywhere. History, resourcefulness and farm fresh flavors come together to create innovative menus and a vibrant farm-to-table experience.

Our region is home to one of the most diverse foodsheds in the United States. Historically food was raised, grazed, foraged and preserved throughout the region by settlers who recognized their very survival depended on it. Haywood County is rich with cultural memory of heirloom seed saving, multi-generational farms, and a tradition of time spent at the dinner table surrounded by loved ones.
